The “Walking Maple”

Out of the early morning mist he materialized, for all the world like a phantom of folklore. As my eyes adjusted to the sight, the feathered edges became more distinct, the shadows lightened and the silhouette of a man stood before me. He was some distance off yet, but my eyes, sharpened by instinct, took in the fedora, the slightly stooped stance, the hooked nose and what appeared to be a shotgun slung over his left shoulder.

It was early morning in the Congaree Swamp after a long night of rain so the fog was dense, vision was uncertain, and the sounds of the swamp were alive with the hollowness that fog and cypress trees produce. As I took in the sight, I could hear the echoed cry of a whippoorwill in the distance and the soft mysterious strains of a five string banjo came to my mind.

As the distance closed between us, I first noticed the smile, followed by the laughing eyes. It would appear that my reaction was a bit amusing to this stranger. On his head was a hat more befitting a banker than phantom and instead of Browning pump action 12 gauge, on his shoulder rested a tripod with a Nikon D3 attached.

As it turns out, he wasn't amused by my reaction at all; but was himself startled almost to the point of panic by the bearded apparition standing before him.

“Nobody takes this trail,” he said, “You ‘bout scared me to death!”

I told him that the feeling was mutual, we both laughed at ourselves, and then we fell to talking.

He was a really nice fella, somewhere around sixty, as wiry as they come, with a winning gapped toothed smile and a hair trigger laugh. He told me that he has lived in and around the swamp all of his life and that he truly loves the place. He loves it to point of wanting to share it with everyone, and on this particular morning, I was blessed to be the benefactor of his desire and knowledge.

As always I had my Nikon strapped to my chest and a tripod hanging from my pack, and being kindred spirits, he said that he had to show me something.

“Have you ever heard of a ‘walking maple’?” He asked.

I answered in the negative and he then exclaimed that just a short half of a mile off the trail was the finest example of a ‘walking maple’ in the entire South. So off we went, slogging through the mud and the black water until we came to little break in the woods where a quiet pond stood. My guide nodded toward a beaver lodge in the distance to whom the pond owes its existence, and then he motioned over the water drawing my attention to the far shore.

Standing on the shore, well actually standing above the shore, was the ‘walking maple.’ A tree on stilts is the best way to describe it. It appears that from time to time an old cypress tree will die and snap off a few feet above the ground leaving a stump. In the course of time a maple seed will come to rest on the stump and sprout. As the maple grows it first seeks nutrition from the old stump but soon the old wood is exhausted and offers no succor to the maple. Seeking solace elsewhere the maple extends its roots over the edge and down the side of the old cypress stump and eventually finds rest and consolation in the rich soil of the swamp. As the maple continues to grow, the now exhausted cypress stump rots away but it does so gradually enough to afford the maple time to strengthen its roots to the point of withstanding its own weight. What is left is a maple tree standing a few feet off of the ground supported by nothing more than it's roots. It is an interesting sight to be sure; for the maple has no tap root to speak of, and in turn while its roots fan out around the now suspended tree, the center, beneath the tree, remains vacant.

It is a startling sight. It does indeed look like the tree is about to take a leisurely stroll.

My companion was beside himself as I marveled at this new discovery. He told me with a gleam in his eye that the old timers believed that these trees would walk around at night guided by the light of the swamp gas and get into all sorts of mischief.

With that he said,

“I only live a couple of miles from here and I need to head home. Just go back the way we came and you'll hit the trail in time.”

He then shook my hand, and with a smile and a nod he disappeared into the mist once again. The banjo music slowly faded and the whippoorwill was alone once again, left to play his melancholy tune.

Why do I tell this story? Well, because I see of a couple of quick lessons in it. First of all life is an adventure. Overcoming your fears and venturing out through the swamp or out for Christ has its rewards.

Secondly, like the ‘walking maple’ we as Christians start out relying upon others for our spiritual sustenance: our parents, our Sunday school teachers, our pastors and the like. In time, however, others will come to rely upon us. We had best be prepared to pass the spiritual DNA down to future generations, or they will be weaker as a result of our neglect. So study and learn the Word of God, pray to Christ for strength and wisdom and an increasing faith, and be there for those who follow.

Love,

Pastor Tony

Star Member

Fellowship Friends will list in the bulletin each month a Star Member. A star member is anyone over 65, a nursing home member or a home bound member. These are our special members who need our care and concern. Greeting cards or note cards are a great way to stay in touch when we can't visit or call.

Our Star Member for the month is:

Hazel Moore-892-2544
431 Peachland Dr.
Gilbert, SC 29054

I just wanted to send a "thank you" to the whole Beulah community. You have been there for my grandparents, Carthon and Lillian Kaminer, while they are going through some hard times. I can't express how touched my family and I are by the kindness of the Beulah community. Your words of encouragement, your visits, your thoughts and prayers are truly uplifting.

My grandparents have been members of Beulah since I can remember and I rest easy knowing that you, all of you, are raising them up in His name.

Thank you all so much! God bless!

Love always,
Allison Houpt

Dear Friends at Beulah, Thank you so much for your continued commitment to care for the children at Epworth. Your support through special offerings, prayers, and donations is a great blessing to these children.

Thank you for believing in them and for providing for their needs. Sincerely, Andrew Boozer, Epworth Children's Home

Beulah Church Members, I want to thank everyone for the thoughts, prayers, and beautiful flowers during my recent operation. May God bless you all. Deborah L Shumpert

To Beulah Church Staff and Members, My family and I would like to "Thank You" all for the lovely prayers, card, and gift certificate that you sent to us during my recovery from the hospital. May God bless you all and please know you are all in our prayers. Thanks, Tim Rogers

To my Friends at Beulah - I want to thank you for the flowers during my recent hospital stay, thank Pastor Tony for his visit and prayers, and Teresa George for bringing a meal when I returned home. Chuck Wallace

Thank you so much for all the cards, emails, and well wishes following my surgery. You even fed me while Angie was out of town. It was a great meal. Thanks to Jerry Davis for the delivery. Beulah Methodist Church ROCKS!! Kenneth Shuler

Krispy Kreme Fundraiser

We are, once again, selling Krispy Kreme donuts and gift cards during the month of September to help in our goal of paying off our land. Please take an order form to your workplace, family gatherings, and neighborhoods. Everyone LOVES Krispy Kreme! The deadline for orders is September 21st and orders will be ready for pick up on September 25th after each service.

Any questions can be answered by Mary 359-2354 or Sandy 892-3292.

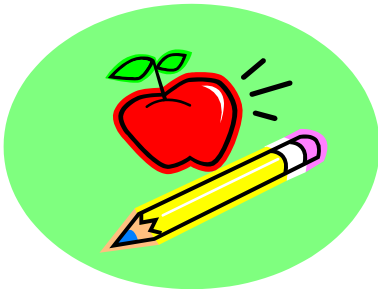

5th Quarter Returns!

Are you ready for some football??? 5th Quarter at Beulah is back for the 2014 Gilbert High School football season. The theme this year is Rivals: Two Opponents One Prize. Once again this year, there will be food, music, games, scripture lesson, and FUN! 5th Quarter will be held on September 12, October 10, and October 24 after each game until 12:00 midnight.

Last year we served approximately 75 teens each night through this ministry. As you can imagine, feeding that many teens is a big challenge. Please consider donating chips, cookies, or sodas to help us serve the youth who participate. A box for 5th Quarter donations will be located in the kitchen beginning on August 25th. We will also need adult volunteers who can help with supervision each night. We'd love to have you join us as we celebrate Gilbert football, but more importantly the love of Jesus Christ! If you are interested in helping, please contact Angie Rye at angie_rye@yahoo.com or 803-315-3008.

Supplies Donated

School Supplies collected at the End of Summer Celebration were donated to teachers at Gilbert Primary School for the students. The teachers were so excited and grateful to receive the supplies!

PRESCHOOL NEWS

Beulah Methodist Preschool

September 2014

2014-2015 Preschool Year Begins!

We are beginning our 3rd year at Beulah Methodist Preschool. God is leading more and more people to Beulah for our preschool program. We have added a second 4 year old class due to 17 four year olds attending the program. This year, our ministry has been blessed with 37 children attending our program!

We are growing, and leading more and more children to follow Jesus Christ. Our Beulah family is growing by adding new teachers.

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. Proverbs 22:6

Stand-In Grandparents Needed

Are your grandkids too far away to go eat lunch with them at school? Does it give you joy to be around children? September 8th and 9th we celebrate Grandparents day at the school. Some children do not have Grandparents that are able to attend. If your heart leads you, please bring a packed lunch and eat lunch with a child that day so they are not eating alone. Please let Leeann know if you are able to attend so she can assign you a student.

Help Needed With Trash

We need help in getting rid of our trash. We would like to get volunteers to help empty the trash containers that are under the canopy. The recycle center right by the church is open on Mon-Wed-Fri during the week and these days would be best for keeping the containers empty after most events. If we could get volunteers to commit to this task each week we would not have to pay for a service. We don't want to use a dumpster service as the last time the trucks damaged our parking lot. If interested, please call Skip Price at 803-465-1484 or the church office at 892-2842. Thank you!

What is Church without Sunday School?

What would church be without Sunday School? We need to teach our children about what we believe in! To do this we need more Sunday School teachers.

If you are willing to help, please call Mindy Price at 892-4362 or 803-465-1477.

Do You Need Copies?

This announcement is for anyone who uses the church copier. If you need copies made for any reason (Sunday School, JAM, Youth, etc.), you must see Mary Joyce to help you run them. We have purchased a new copier and it has a log-in feature which the church secretary will have to do. This will be an inconvenience for many of you.

There have been so many problems in the past with people using the copier machine and not know what to do when there is a problem. When Mary Joyce comes to the office she either has to figure out how to fix the machine or call a repairman. So look ahead and when you need copies come to the office Monday-

Thursday 8:30 am until 1:00 pm or leave what you need copied with Mary Joyce and she will make the copies for you. When finished they will be on the table in front of the office. Requested copies can be left of the door in the slot named copies. Thank you.

REFIT® Classes

REFIT® classes will begin Tuesday, Sept. 2nd at Beulah in the Family Life Center. These hour long Faith + Fitness classes are designed to bring ladies of the community together to share in nourishing the body, mind, and soul. Women of all ages are invited, and members are encouraged to invite others in the community. The dance based classes will be tailored to all levels of fitness. Wear comfortable work out clothes, and bring a mat, if you have one. The first class is free with a suggested donation of $3 to $4 for classes to follow. Classes will be held every Tuesday at 7:00 except during the church revival when class will be held at 4:00.

Clean Up Day

Church Clean Up Day will be Saturday, September 13 from 8 am until 1 pm. Lunch will be provided. Please come out and help spruce up the church buildings and grounds! Any questions, call Skip Price, 892-4362 or 803-465-1484.

Fun, Food, and Fellowship

September 11, 2014

We would like to invite you to Fun, Food and Fellowship. We meet every second Thursday at 10:30 am (except for November, when we have the Senior Thanksgiving Dinner). We hope you will come have lunch and get together with all your friends and make new friends. Invite all your neighbors to come with you. We would be glad to have you attend. Any questions, please call the church office at 892-2842.

Beulah's Vendor's Market

November 8, 2014

The Beulah Land Vendors' Market which is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 8th is quickly filling up with lots of great vendors for your shopping pleasure. We already have 31 Gifts, Tastefully Simple, Mary Kay cosmetics, handcrafted needlework, artists with their photography and wooden bowls, metalwork, home made breads, gourmet sweets, wreathes, and vintage items, just to name a few. Please continue to spread the word to the community and beyond.
